

Teen Thunder Dress Code

To the highest common standard.

PASTOR/ Youth Pastor/ Parent: Please help us maintain a high standard. Please ensure that the youth from your church are in keeping with our standard of attire. Thank you.

Attire for Guys:

Morning/Afternoon Sessions: Collared shirt, clean, neat pants (full length)
Evening Sessions: Collared shirt, tie, and non-denim pants (full length)
A Suit could win extra points for your team!

Note: - No shorts or tank tops will be allowed at any time.
- No earrings, piercings, necklaces or other such feminine jewelry shall be permitted.
- Sweatpants / Trackpants will be permitted for physical activities. Please keep them loose.
- Any willful deviation from these standards will result in the participant being sent back to the dressing area to change.

Attire for Girls:

Morning/Afternoon Sessions: Dress or skirt/top.
Denim is acceptable, but in no case shall the dress or skirt come above the knee when seated. Leggings are acceptable, but are not exceptions to this rule.

Evening Sessions: Dress or skirt/top which comes below the knee when seated.

Note: - In keeping with modest apparel, tops shall come to the region of the collar bone at the neckline
- Any slits in skirts/dresses shall not come above the knee when seated
- Keep all clothing long and loose.
- Pants and shorts are not permitted in public at anytime. Pajamas are acceptable once the boys and girls have been separated for the night.
- Any willful deviation from these standards will result in the participant being sent back to the dressing area to change.
- Leggings are encouraged for under skirts during physical activities. However, leggings do not exempt you from modesty and propriety, and ensuring that your skirt is ALWAYS below your knee.

Behavior for all Participants:

- There shall be no physical contact between the sexes.
- When being transported from one area to another, girls shall sit in separate seats from boys.
- Everyone shall attend all sessions and activities unless specifically excused by a supervisor.
- Once a youth function has begun, participants forfeit their right to conduct their personal vehicles on the roadway (except as delegated by a supervisor) until the conclusion of the event.
- All handheld gaming devices, radios, mp3 players i- Pods, secular books/magazines, computer games, cell phones and other entertainment devices shall not be permitted.
- Supervisors have the right to make a judgment on questionable dress and activity and the decision of the host Pastor shall be final. All participants will obey those in authority immediately and cheerfully.
- All participants are required to have FUN. This function is for a limited time and you will survive the regulations.
- Please smile now and return your registration.